

MEMORY DISORDERS AND DEMENTIA WORKSHOP

Narinder Kapur
University College London

8.45-9.25am – REGISTRATION & TEA / COFFEE

9.25-9.30am – Welcome

9.30-10.15am – Memory Assessment – as well as standard batteries, key clinical interview questions, autobiographical memory, malingering, cross-cultural assessment.

10.15-11.00am – Amnesic Syndromes – Encephalitis, Traumatic Brain Injury, Alcoholic Korsakoff Syndrome, Stroke, Hypoxia

11.00-11.30am – TEA / COFFEE

11.30-12.15pm – Transient Amnesia – Transient Global Amnesia, Transient Epileptic Amnesia, Post-Traumatic Amnesia, Fugue States

12.15-1pm – Memory Rehabilitation – Encoding strategies, retrieval practice, assistive technology

1-2.00pm – LUNCH BREAK & opportunity for delegates to informally discuss clinical cases

2.00-2.45pm – Alzheimer's Disease, Posterior Cortical Atrophy, Primary Progressive Aphasia – Distinctive features of each condition and assessment tips, including cross-cultural issues

2.45-3.30pm – Semantic Dementia and Bifrontal Variant Frontotemporal Dementia – Distinctive features of each condition and assessment tips, including cross-cultural issues

3.30-4pm – TEA / COFFEE

4-4.45pm – Movement Disorders Dementias – Parkinson's Disease, Lewy Body Dementia, Corticobasal Degeneration, Progressive Supranuclear Palsy, Creutzfeldt-Jakob Disease

Video clips will be form major parts of the lectures that are delivered. Audience participation will be encouraged by the use of electronic response buttons.

A number of the lectures will illustrate how the use of Smart Papers (checklists for diagnosis and management) can be used to improve clinical practice. These Smart Papers will be provided free at the workshop.

£95 for trainees / post-graduate students. £125 for qualified staff.

Any surplus proceeds from this Workshop go towards supporting Neuropsychology in developing countries such as India